

Internship at Constellium Corporate Strategy

Role Description
Job Title:	Internship Corporate Strategy	Start date:	ASAP min 6 months
Reports to:	Stefanie Mersmann Senior Manager Strategy & Business Development	Function:	Corporate Strategy & Business Development
Location:	Zurich

Context:

Constellium is a global sector leader strongly committed to designing and manufacturing innovative and high value-added aluminium products and solutions for a broad range of applications dedicated primarily to aerospace, automotive and packaging markets.

With 11,000 employees, Constellium operates 22 manufacturing sites in Europe, North America and China. Constellium generated €4.7 billion of revenue in 2016. Since the acquisition of Wise Metals early 2015, North America represents roughly 1/3 of Constellium total sales, a percentage which is expected to grow in the near term.

Key accountabilities

Support in operational tasks in the strategy department:

- Regular competitor watch & customer end market updates
- Company capital management
- Ad-hoc analyses for top management

Support strategic projects (examples):

- Digital initiatives
- Competitive intelligence strategy
- Business & market analyses

Support business development activities:

- M&A / Divestitures
- Joint Ventures & new businesses

Competencies, technical skills requirement

- At least 2 years of university level linked to a bachelor or master studying program
- Experience within a strategy consulting company is a plus
- Very strong analytical and conceptual skills
- Good communication and interpersonal skills
- Open-minded and flexible, self starter mentality
- Good skills in MS Office especially in excel (Pivot) and PowerPoint
- Language fluency in English is a must, German or French is a plus

Please contact Stefanie Mersmann (stefanie.mersmann@constellium.com) for further information or submit your application directly to her via mail