

Internship Finance & Controlling

 Uzwil

 temporary (8 months), 80%

 Start: 01.03.2021

Introduction

Corporate Audit department of Bühler provides an independent and objective assurance to the Audit Committee and Executive Management of Bühler on the state of internal controls, compliance and risk governance practices in the company world-wide. Alongside, Corporate Audit contributes to-wards the objectives of the company by creating value and insights for its stakeholders through application of modern internal audit practices.

From March 2021 onwards you have the opportunity to join our cool and diverse Corporate Audit team as part of the Corporate Finance Department.

Tasks

- Internal Control System (ICS) and Control Self-Assessment:
- Manage Bühler's ICS system Schleupen for necessary content update and support country organization through trainings, access management etc.
- Carry out annual roll out of the internal controls and self-assessment questionnaire to the entities world-wide
- Analyze results of self-assessment and prepare a presentation for management
- Support in Audit:
- Participate in preparation activities of every audit. It involves preparing information request, creating meeting schedules, coordinating with local management for planning & logistics etc.
- Carry out standard data analysis as per the directions of the senior auditors
- Support in quarterly follow up of the implementation of audit recommendations
- General support:
- Support the Head of Corporate Audit in various other tasks as necessary

Required qualifications

- You are studying towards your Bachelor's/Master's degree in finance, operations, accounting, risk management or similar
- You have the ability to apply learned principles and concepts in corporate audit
- You have a keen interest in data analytics
- Fluency in English

Preferred qualifications

- You are enthusiastic about using various systems such as Schleupen, SAP
- You are familiar with MS office applications - particularly, word, excel, outlook and power point

Benefits

- Cross-cultural working environment
- Flexitime
- Canteen
- Parking area
- Good connections with public transport
- Employee benefits and discounts

Application documents

- Cover letter, Resume, Transcripts, Letters of recommendation

Bühler as an employer

Who we are

We are working to create sustainable innovations for a better world. Our aim is to transform the world's most pressing food and mobility challenges into sustainable technologies, process solutions and business models. At Bühler, you are empowered to show initiative and take responsibility. In our family-owned company, personal success goes hand in hand with shared success. We foster a diverse and inclusive workplace where integrity and courage are key drivers of our success. We support your personal development because we want you to make a difference. By joining Bühler, you will be helping us tackle global challenges while at the same time meeting the needs of our customers.

Bühler is an equal opportunity employer and we value diversity and inclusion at our company, therefore, it's important that you match us and we match you. Regardless of your gender (m/f/d).

Questions? We're happy to help!

Bianca Bischof

HR Service Partner

bianca.bischof@buhlergroup.com

+41719551837

Gupfenstrasse 5

9240 Uzwil

Switzerland