Your profile

- Student in communications, marketing, brand management or related field ready to gain practical experience before graduating from university
- Experience and interest in social media, content creation and digital communication tools
- Strong skills in M365 applications

- Initial experience with content management systems (e.g. SharePoint, Kentico) beneficial
- Basic knowledge of video editing is an advantage
- Excellent communication skills in English are a must, German an advantage, other languages a plus
- Ability to work in a structured, proactive and reliable manner
- Curious and open-minded team player who would love to work in an international environment
- Fast learner who is keen to acquire new capabilities across all disciplines of communications
- Commitment to be part of the team for twelve months

Why HUBER+SUHNER?

We work closely aligned with the marketing communications teams in a newsroom setting, planning and coordinating content across all channels. You will be a valued member of a passionate and dynamic team, with the opportunity to gain comprehensive insights into an international company and handle exciting projects and tasks in corporate communications and related fields. At the end of the year, you will be able to handle communications projects independently and confidently from briefing through conception to implementation.

Please upload your application in English.
